

You Never Can Tell - Chuck Berry

It was a teenage wedding, and the old folks wished them well

You could see that Pierre did truly love the Madamoiselle
And now the young Monsieur and Madame have rung the chapel bell

"C'est la vie", say the old folks, it goes to show you never can tell

They furnished off an apartment with a two room Roebuck sale

The coolerator was crammed with TV dinners and ginger ale
But when Pierre found work, the little money comin' worked out well

They had a hi-fi phono, boy did they let it blast

Seven hundred little records all rock, rhythm and jazz
But when the sun went down the rapid tempo of the music fell

They bought a souped-up jitney, was a cherry red '53

And drove it down New Orleans to celebrate their anniversary
It was there where Pierre was wedded to the lovely Madamoiselle

"C'est la vie", say the old folks, it goes to show you never can tell

(repeat 1st verse)
