

Someone To Lava - James Ford Murphy

From the Pixar short film "Lava"

A long, long time ago, there was a volcano, living all alone, in the middle of the sea.

He sat high above his bay, watching all the couples play, and wishing that... he had someone, too.

And from his lava came, this song of hope that he sang out loud... everyday, for years and years.

Chorus:

I have a dream I hope will come true... that you're here with me, and I'm here with you

I wish that the earth, sea, and the sky up above... will send me someone to la-va

Years of singing all alone turned his lava into stone, until he was on the brink of ex-tinct-ion.

But little did he know that living in the sea below... another volcano was listening to his song.

Every day she heard his tune, her lava grew and grew, because she believed his song was meant for her.

Now she was so ready... to meet him above the sea, as he sang his song of hope for the last time.

(Chorus, slower)

Rising from the sea below stood a lovely volcano... looking all around, but she could not see him.

He tried to sing to let her know that she was not there alone, but with no lava his song was all gone.

He filled the sea with his tears and watched his dreams disappear as she remembered what... his song meant to her.

(Chorus)

Oh, they were so happy to finally meet above the sea. All together now their lava grew and grew.

No longer were they alone with aloha as their new home, and when you visit them, this is what they sing:

Final Chorus:

I have a dream... I hope will come true, that you'll grow old with me, and I'll grow old with you

We thank the earth, sea, and the sky we thank too

I lava you... I lava you... I lava yoooooooouuuu
